GONE TO FRANKFORT

To Protest Against the Raise

The assessment this year was already much higher than it was last year and the committee will try to save the people from an unnecessary burden.

CLOTHES CAUGHT

And Child Was Burned to Death.

The five-year old daugnter or one Hutcherson, col., who resides about five miles south of the city, near Hargis' bridge, was burned to death Thursday. Her clothes caught from a fire-place and she was horribly burned, dying in great agony.

Another Frost

Another Frost,
Another big frost Thursday night!
March and April seem to have swapped places on the calendar. The weather clerk, who pulled the wool over the eyes of the people's for three weeks in March, seems to have gone over to the side of the coal dealers and fires have to be kept running now as if this were middle read from the weather clerk. Early gardens have been partially ruined and—well, there's to use mentioning the fruit crop.

PAT DALTON DEAD.

Expired Yesterday, After Illness of Three Months.

Patrick Dalton died at 8:30 o'clock, esterday morning at the Mitchell boarding house on South Main, after an illness of three months of stomach rouble. He was a native of Ireland and was seventy-four years old. He ind been a resident of this city about signiteen years, having come here from Nashville. Tomorrow Rural Letter Carriers Meet For Business.

As Uncle Sam's rural carriers are allowed a rest on Sunday, a large number of them will gather at Paducah to-morrow and ogganize. The object of the meeting is to grant a charter to the carriers of this county, thus admitting them into the State Association. Mr. Edgar Bradshaw will represent the carriers of Christian in the meeting. Besides a good time generally those in attendance will partake of a grand dinner, after which those who are gifted in oratory will dilate on the glory and strength of the government they so faithfully serve, as well as the Amefican Eagle, which protects females, males and mails allike all over this grand republic—when the trusts don't bother it too much.

It seems that a certain gentleman met his friend, and taking from his pocket a newspaper called his attention to a certain article therein. In a few moments the discussion betion to a certain article therein. In a few moments the discussion between the gentlemen in question became very animated, and begin to attract the attention of the passing crowd, and as usual the "forever present young American," exhibiting his usual scuriosity, stopped and gathered around to secretain exactly what was "doing." This little assemblage attracted the largeries of the police to disperse the increasing mob. THE SPARROWS,

Not the Robbins and Song Birds, Targets for Boys.

Robbins, red birds, cat birds and blue jays are now seen and heard in the city, but, strange to say, boys are making war on them, and with slingshot and air gun are said to be killing them off at a rapid rate. If the boys would turn their 'artillery' on the pestiferous English Sparrow are an uisance and should be exterminated, but here is the law which protects other birds. Read it, boys, and watch out, or you will get into trouble:

trouble:
"No person shall at any time catch, kill or pursue with such intent, or have in possession after the same Las been caught or Filled, any thrush, meadow lark, finch, martin, swallow, woodpecker, licker, orlole, red bird, tanager, cat-bird, blue-time and proper specific productions of the same or insectivorus.
